STATEMENT BY
THE HONORABLE HENRY A. KISSINGER
SECRETARY OF STATE

AND

JAMES OSOGO
ACTING MINISTER OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS
UPON THE DEPARTURE OF THE SECRETARY
NAIROBI, KENYA
SEPTEMBER 23, 1976

MR. OSOGO: Members of the press, once again are here, at the end of the visit of the Secretary of State who just arrived from Nakuru after seeing the President and would like to say a few words of Kwaheri to the Kenyans and the world press. Mr. Secretary.

SECRETARY KISSINGER: Mr. Acting Foreign Minister, I would simply like to thank the President and the people of Kenya for the very warm reception we have had here. The President and I discussed the relations between Kenya and the United States which are excellent.

I also briefed him on the American action in bringing together or in attempting to bring together the various groups in southern Africa and to make progress towards a peaceful solution based on justice and human dignity. I was very satisfied with my talk and I leave Africa, from here, with warm feelings and a sense of hope.

Thank you.
